

WOMEN IN SCIENCE ORGANISES WORKSHOP ON WRITING AWARD WINNING GRANT

The writing of award-winning grants for the academia has further received a boost when the Tai Solarin University of Education branch of the Organisation for Women in Science for the Developing World (OWSD) organised a training workshop for teaching staff of the University.

In his welcome Vice-Chancellor, represented by the Specialised and Education(COSPED), Rashedat Sulaimon would give women the occasion the acquire information trends in writing grants.

According to Prof. affords the teaching to learn from the experience of the the workshop will the academia to the issues surrounding grants, not leaving approaches to writing a good proposal.

PROF. FOLASADE SULEIMAN DELIVERING THE ACTING VICE CHANCELLOR'S WELCOME ADDRESS AT THE EVENT.

address, the Acting Prof. Wole Banjo Dean, College of Professional Prof.Folasade noted that the event scientists present at opportunity to on the current award winning

Banjo, the workshop staff the opportunity wealth of guest speakers as open the eyes of contemporary the award of out the best

He, however, urged policymakers to support the organisation through contributions to the lofty ideas, in order to improve the place of women in the field of science.

In her welcome address, the President of OWSD, who also doubles as the Dean, College of Science and Information Technology(COSIT), Prof.Oluwakemi Oyebanjo thanked the Acting Vice-Chancellor for the support given to the organisation in hosting the maiden edition of the workshop.

Prof. Oyebanjo disclosed that OWSD is primarily aimed at promoting the participation of women in the development and utilization of new technologies.

She urged women to collectively increase the awareness about the participation of women scientists and technologists in the development of Nigeria.

While recalling the establishment of the organisation in TASUED, Prof.Oyebanjo gave accolades to Prof. Stella Odebo for her continuous support to gender equality and for championing the cause of women in Nigeria and beyond.

The lectures were delivered by Prof. Samuel Ekundayo Oladipo the Director, Directorate of Research and External Relations of the institution, followed by Prof. Bolanle Otegbayo from Bowen University, Iwo, Dr J.O. Akorede and Dr R.A. Akerele amongst others.

follow us on  tasued  @tasued.ng