The Ijebu Ode District of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Nigeria (ICAN), has commended the Management of Tai Solarin University of Education, Ijagun, for creating enabling conditions for members of the Institute to excel.

This was the submission of the Chairperson of ICAN, Mrs Morenike Taiwo when members of the District paid a courtesy visit to the Management of the institution as part of the activities marking this year World Accountants Day, which is celebrated yearly on November 10.

Mrs Taiwo disclosed that ICAN members in TASUED are always in attendance in training and seminars organised by the body.

She noted that Accountants are important to the development of any organisation be it the public or private sector.

In his response at the event, the acting Vice-Chancellor, Prof Wole Banjo represented by the Acting Registrar of the University, Mr Dapo Oke thanked the body for the visit.

He disclosed that members of ICAN in the University are thoroughbred professionals who have contributed immensely to the success story of TASUED.

"ICAN members in TASUED are very wonderful in managing resources and finances", he stated.

He further disclosed that no member of the Institute has ever been caught engaging in sharp practices, with the assurance that the University Management would continue to sponsor and encourage training and retraining of its staff to be compliant with the world best practices.

Other members of the body in attendance include the Vice Chairman, Mr Segun Adewale, the Secretary, Mr Akanji Kayode, the immediate Past Chairman of the Ijebu Ode District of ICAN who is also the Manager, Tasued Microfinance Bank, Mr Steve Gbogiaran, the Acting Bursar, of the University, Mr Oluwabunmi Abdullah amongst others.
